A WARD

(Passed on this 14th day of January, 2009)

By order dated 11-4-2005, the Government of Goa had referred the following dispute to the Tribunal for adjudication:

"(1) Whether the action of The Goa State Co-operative Housing Finance and Federation Limited, Panaji, in refusing the payment of customary bonus of 20% for the financial year 2000-2001, to their employees represented by Kamgarancho Ekvott is legal and justified ?

(2) If not, to what relief the employees are entitled ?"

2. On receipt of the reference IT/11/05 was registered and notices were issued to both parties, pursuant to which the Party I filed its claim statement at Exb. 6 and the Party II filed its written statement at Exb. 8.

3. The case of the Party I is that vide letters dated 3-5-02 and 12-8-02 and memorandum dated 29-10-2002 the Party I had raised demand for 20% customary bonus for the financial year 2000-2001 which was being paid continuously since 1988-89. The Party II did not accept the demand and as such the dispute was raised before the Labour Commissioner. However the same could not be resolved amicably. The Party I has stated that they are entitled for 20% customary bonus for the financial year 2000-2001.

4. The Party II has claimed that it was paying bonus to its employees at the highest rate prescribed under Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 in terms of the agreement between the parties. The Party II has stated that the last such agreement was valid till the year 1999-2000 and as per the new agreement for the period from 1-4-2000 to 31-3-2003 the parties have agreed for payment of bonus under the Payment of Bonus Act. The Party II has stated that since the wages of the employees were revised in the year 2000-2001, they went out of eligibility limit and were not entitled for bonus. The Party II has stated that it had never paid customary bonus and that Party I is not entitled for 20% customary bonus for the 2000-2001.

5. Based on the aforesaid pleadings the following issues were framed:

1. Whether the Party I workmen prove that they were entitled for customary bonus of 20% for the financial year 2001-2002 ?

2. What relief ? What order ?

6. On 10-12-2008, the representative of Party I filed an application at Exb. 10 stating that the employees have amicably settled the dispute pertaining to the customary bonus claimed in the present reference and hence the dispute referred to this Tribunal does not survive. The Party I has therefore prayed for passing of no dispute award. Learned Advocate, Shri P. J. Kanat, who is representing the Party II has also made an endorsement on the application at Exb. 10, stating that there is no objection for making no dispute award. The application at Exb. 10 clearly indicates that the dispute referred to this Tribunal has been amicably settled by the parties and in view of this settlement the dispute referred to this Tribunal vide order dated 11-4-2005 no longer survives.

Hence I pass the following order.

ORDER

It is hereby held that the dispute referred to this Tribunal vide order dated 11-4-2005 has been amicably settled between the parties to this reference and hence the dispute referred vide reference dated 11-4-2005 does not survive.

Inform the Government accordingly.

A WARD

(Passed on this 20th day of November, 2008)

The Party I was employed with the Party II w.e.f. 1-5-95 as a Junior Engineer. The services of the Party I were terminated by the Party II w.e.f. 30-10-96. The Party I had raised the Industrial Dispute, the conciliation proceeding ended in failure and on receipt of the failure report the Government by order dated 12-4-99 referred the following dispute for adjudication of this Tribunal.

"(1) Whether the action of the management of M/s. Rex Instruments Pvt. Ltd., St. Jose de Areal, in terminating the services of Shri Donald J. Dias, Jr. Engineer, with effect from 30-10-96 is legal and justified ?

(2) If not, to what relief the workman is entitled ?"

2. The Party I filed his claim statement at Exb. 5. The Party I has stated that the relationship between the Party I and the Party II was that of employer and workmen. He has stated that the Party II had sent him for training to Switzerland from 6-6-1995 to 3-7-95 and then on completion of the training he resumed duties on 4-7-95. The Party I has stated that by order dated 6-12-1996 his services were terminated w.e.f. 30-10-96 for being negligent, irresponsible, irregular, attendance, etc. The Party I has stated that no enquiry was conducted before issuing order of termination and that the order is arbitrary, illegal and void. The Party I has therefore sought reinstatement with full backwages, continuity in service and other consequential benefits.

3. The Party II has denied that the Party I is a workman within the meaning of Section 2(s) of the Act. The Party II has stated that the Party I was appointed mainly for doing administrative, managerial and supervisory work and his salary was more than Rs. 1,600/- per month. The Party II has stated that it had spent Rs. 2 lakhs to send the Party I to Switzerland and that though Party I was required to work for minimum period of 3 years, he refused to join the duties and remained unauthorisedly absent from August, 1995 till the end of 1996 and thereby caused inconvenience and financial loss to the Party II.

4. The Party II has stated that several letters were sent to the Party I asking him to report to work and to explain his absence. However there was no response from the Party I and as such it had no other alternative but to terminate services of Party I. The Party II has stated that on receipt of the termination order the Party I had contacted the director of the company on 11-12-96 and that the director had told him that he could report to work immediately. However instead of reporting to work the Party I sent a letter stating that his termination was illegal. The Party II has further stated that during the course of conciliation proceedings the Party I was told to join duties however the Party I was not interested in joining duties but only interested in claiming backwages. The Party II has stated that the Party I is not entitled for any relief.

5. Based on the aforesaid pleadings the following issues were framed:

- 1 Whether the Party I proves that termination of his service by the Party II w.e.f. 30-10-96 is illegal and unjustified ?
- 2 Whether the Party II proves that the reference is bad in law for the reasons stated in para 1 of the written statement ?
- 3 Whether the Party II proves that the Party I is not a "workman" within the meaning of Sec. 2(s) of the I. D. Act, 1947 ?
- 4 Whether the Party II proves that the Party I refused to join the duties inspite of asking him to do so ?
- 5 Whether the Party I is entitled to any relief ?
- 6 What Award ?

6. The records indicate that the Party I had adduced his evidence and the matter was pending for continuation of evidence of the Party II. However on 17-11-2008 both parties remained present before the Tribunal and filed application at Exb. 20 and stated that the matter has been amicably settled and that they have agreed to settle the dispute in terms and conditions incorporated in paras 6 to 9 of the application. The application at Exb. 20 is duly signed by the parties/representative/advocates and the terms incorporated in the said application are acceptable to both parties. I have perused the said terms which are at paras 6 to 9 of the application at Exb. 20 and in my considered opinion, these terms are in the interest of the workman. Hence I pass the following consent award.

ORDER

- 1 That the Party II agrees to accept a sum of Rs. 2,06,317/- (Rupees Two lakhs six thousand three hundred and seventeen only) in full and final settlement/satisfaction of all their claims against Party I and the Decree appealed against shall stand modified to that extent and the parties to the Appeal shall file consent terms to the aforementioned effect before the Hon'ble High Court.

2 That, accordingly, Party I has paid the said sum of Rs. 2,06,317/- (Rupees Two lakhs six thousand three hundred and seventeen only) by way of Demand Draft under No. 279665 dated 30-8-2008 drawn/issued on Centurion Bank of Punjab Ltd., Panaji branch in favour of M/s. Rex Instruments Pvt. Ltd., Party II abovenamed. Receipt of which said Demand Draft is admitted and acknowledged.

3 It is agreed by Party II, that the sum of Rs. 2,06,317/- (Rupees Two lakhs six thousand three hundred and seventeen only) paid as aforesaid constitutes full and final settlement/satisfaction of all their claims against Party I abovenamed.

4 It is agreed between the parties that a copy of this settlement arrived between the parties shall be filed before the Hon'ble Industrial Tribunal at Panaji with a request to pass no dispute Award in terms of the settlement as aforesaid.

Inform the Government accordingly.
